AMERICAN WHISKEYS (ALL PRICES BASED ON A 2½ OZ NEAT POUR)

ASK ABOUT TODAY'S WHISKEY FLIGHT

Pappy Van Winkle 20 yr.

A bold, powerful entry leads to a dryish full body. Finishes with a seemingly endless and evolving cascade of flavors. A monumental bourbon. 16

Blanton's

Finishes with a honeyed grain, limestone, and deep spice fade An elegant yet gutsy whiskey 11

Buffalo Trace

Dry-yet-fruity medium-full body of honeyed combread toast, intense brown spices, and pralines. Impressive toasted barrel character shines through 8

Eagle Rare Single Barrel

An elegant sipping or mixing bourbon. 9

Knob Creek

Develops nicely with a little water—a good one to work on and savor over time. 10

Woodford Reserve

An aggressive and spicy bourbon 11

Bakers

Very even and straightforward. Try with a touch of water. 10

Bookers

A big brawny style with fire and remarkable balance. Opens and smoothes out great with water. 12

Old Forester

A rich entry leads to a zesty, dry-yet-fruity medium body of rich peppery brown spice, vanilla, and buttery toffeed nuts and a long spicy fade. Very nice. 8

Basil Haydens

Round, vibrant entry leads to a dry medium-to full-bodied palate with somewhat lean oak, corn, and caramel flavors. 9

Jim Beam Black

A smooth and flavorful bourbon for every application. 9

Four Roses Single Barrel

Deep amber color. Intense aromas of vanilla toffee, caramelized nuts, coconut cream, and spice. Great intensity and poise. 10

Bulleit

Deep amber color. Highly polished aromas of creamy vanilla, pickling spices, and buttery pralines. An elegant sipping or mixing bourbon. 9
